We PORTRAY the McKendree BOY and GIRL

In the McKENDREAN-- Yearbook published by the students of McKendree
College at Lebanon, Illinois.
Volume VIII, New Series.

If HER LIFE and HIS LIFE are correctly portrayed

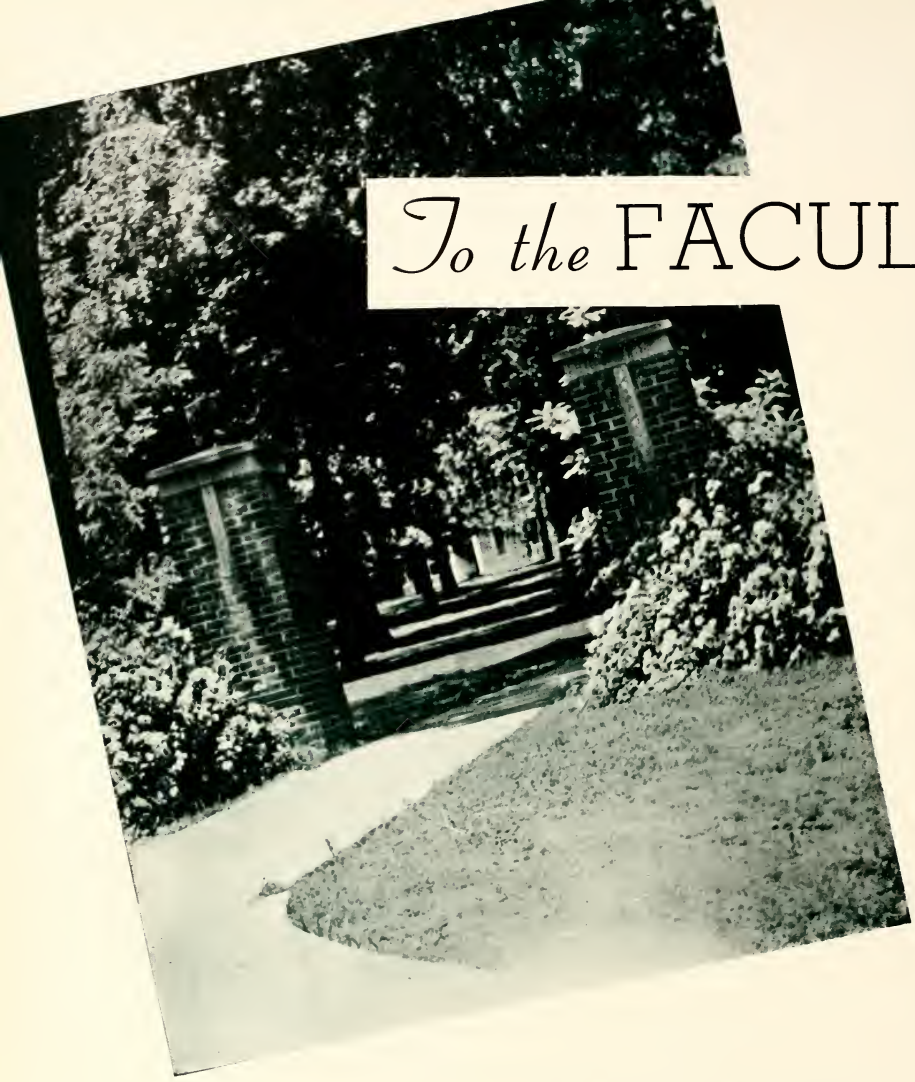
this account of "McKendree day by day" will have accomplished its purpose. As you leaf from page to page you may determine our class standing and who made up the basketball, football, and track squads. We would be disappointed if you did not notice the honorary society which has pledged us this year. Stop just for a moment and take cognizance of our literary and dramatic achievements. Did you know that we have taken a forward step in the form of a Faculty-Student Council? If you peruse this book carefully, you will see all these things—and more. We hope that each page will serve as a piece of the entire pattern of our campus life.

To the FACULT



"I am not a teacher; only a fellow-traveller of whom you asked the way. I pointed ahead—ahead of myself as well as of you."

—Bernard Shaw.

Y of the COLLEGE who have been the greatest influence for good which has entered their lives during their entire college career, the McKendree Boy and Girl, today, pay tribute.

Is it the teacher of Science? It is. Do we list the teacher of Languages? History? Dramatics? We do. Are the Coaches, the Librarian, the Executives there? Again we answer: "They are." If we are well-integrated individuals, we can point to this splendid group of men and women, each of whom has contributed his part, and to them this book is dedicated in the hope that thereby a small part of our appreciation may be expressed.

For four of the best years of our lives we have been glad to submit to the kindly, friendly guidance of the President, the Dean, and the Teacher who is a specialist in our particular field. No day too filled with other duties, but that they found time for our problems. No problems so big but that they were willing to help us solve them. They, ever willing and able, found the extremity of us—The Boy and Girl—their opportunity.

Alpha Psi Omega

Alpha Psi officially began its year with a tea in the home of Betty Mae Phillips, to which prospective members were invited. An enjoyable feature of the afternoon was the informal sing after the tea.

Our purpose is to foster dramatics on our own campus as well as to develop an interest in drama in general.

We have attempted this year to acquaint ourselves with the best plays and with the most important stage personalities.

Our trip to the American to see Paul Muni in "Key Largo" and the dinner following represented perhaps the highlight in our year of memories.

Our organization is an honorary fraternity for the recognition of scholarship in science and mathematics. This year we sponsored a series of programs presented by the Waggoner Science Society. We also sponsor Waggoner Memorial activities and an annual award to a student of outstanding science scholarship.

This year our big project is the arranging and classification of rocks and minerals left us by Professor Waggoner.

Sigma Tau Delta

Sigma Tau is an English writing fraternity and the words Sigma Tau Delta are the initial letters of the Greek words symbolizing sincerity, truth, and design.

Our purpose is the study of literary masterpieces, the encouragement of worthwhile reading, the promotion of expression, as well as the fostering of a spirit of fellowship among students of English and literature.

We meet every two weeks to evaluate current literature of all kinds in order that we may gain experience in creative writing. We also submit appropriate material for the Rectangle, the official publication of our organization.

Sigma Beta Rho is an organization composed of ministerial students who meet every week for song, prayer, and inspirational talks.

This year we boast the addition of the first women ever to be admitted to our circle.

The activities of one of the two weeks of special religious emphasis as well as the special three-hour service on Good Friday, in our local church, was sponsored by our organization.

Gospel teams from our group have appeared in various Southern Illinois churches, not only to "bring McKendree" to the people but to share something of our Christian experience with them.

Philosophian Literary Society

Our men's literary society has been growing during this, its one hundred and third year. Weekly meetings are held and open sessions, open to anyone, are held once a month, with refreshments.

An especially interesting feature of one of our regular programs was Dr. Walton's history of Philo. We are redecorating Philo hall this year.

The usual Philo program is composed of devotions, an essay, a declamation, an assigned address, an impromptu, current events, music, and a debate. Our purpose is to encourage literary achievement and debate.

New officers are elected every six weeks. Presidents for the year were:

Cecil Lowe

Orlando Brakemeyer

Paul Yost

Carlus Basinger

Clionian Literary Society

Officers are elected every nine weeks. Presidents for the year were:

Madeleine Yost

Dorothy Hertenstein

Bertie Bauer

Isabel Shaffer

Clio is our women's literary society wherein we strive to gain more self-confidence in public speaking and to help uphold the literary and musical standards of the college.

Our programs are made up of a song by the society, scripture and prayer, roll call, a declamation, an assigned address, an impromptu, an essay, current events, parliamentary drill, and music. We have open sessions once a month to which everyone is invited.

The reunion of our society on Homecoming Day was a great success. Several former Clio members gave the program.

The Clio-Philo banquet in April constitutes one of the fondest memories of Clio. It was unanimously decided to make a banquet of the two societies an annual event.

Y. W. C. A.

The girls' "Y" this year has been very active. We invite all college girls to join us.

The cabinet had as much fun planning the meetings as the other girls did in attending them every Wednesday night. Especially welcome was the dinner and cabinet meeting with Mrs. Stowell. Our advisers, Mrs. Stowell and Mrs. Scarborough, have been the source of much inspiration this year.

Our meetings included discussions as well as addresses. Among the highlights of the year were a visit to the home of Mrs. Virgil Church, where we were inducted into the mysteries of "antiquing"; Dr. Wright's Mexican travelogue; Professor Hardy's talk on Art, which prefaced the art exhibit held in Benson Wood Library; and Professor Scarborough's ever-inspiring messages. We had song fests and favorite poems and just before Easter several members led discussions in which we talked over problems both spiritual and social. These discussions led to a better understanding among us.

We began our year as usual with the "Big and Little Sister" idea. Heart Sister Week was observed in February.

The Y. M. tries to promote religion and social fellowship among the men on the campus. We meet every Wednesday night. Combined Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. programs are held each month.

The Y. M. programs this year have been planned by special committees and we feel that this method of arranging our meetings has proved very successful.

Among the most interesting of our meetings might be mentioned the ones in which Prof. Hardy talked on "The Possibility of the United States Entering Another War" and "Enjoyment of Music and Poetry"; "Science and Religion" by Prof. Hertenstein; "Easter Thoughts"; and the address by Rev. Koch of Trenton on "Youthful Interpretations of the Bible."

Nature Club

The aim of the Nature Club is to acquaint its members with a few interesting common forms of Nature, for—

"To him who in the love of Nature
Holds communion with her visible forms,
She speaks a various language."

Through our programs and field trips we come to know a few birds, a few trees and shrubs, a few heavenly bodies, and to acquire knowledge relating to other phases of nature.

We plant trees and shrubs on the campus. This year we contributed two pin oaks. We also did some work on Lake Beautiful.

We also sponsored the presentation of the one-act plays: "Hearts Enduring", "The Man Who Died at Twelve o'Clock", "Not Quite Such a Goose" and "The House on Piccadilly Street". These were directed by Barbara Woolard, Harry Ward, Dorothy Miller, and Janet Barkley.

The Review Staff is made up of students who are interested in Journalism.

This group is responsible for the publication of the McKendree Review, which is issued every two weeks during the regular school year. The Review is in its nineteenth year of continuous service and, as advertised, is "devoted to the interests of McKendree College".

The Debate Squad engaged in debates with Greenville College, Illinois College, Concordia Seminary, Millikin University and St. Olaf College. We had two return debates with Greenville College. Delegates to the National Pi Kappa Delta Convention at Knoxville, Tennessee, were Marvin Butler, Albert Johnpeter, and James Oppitz.

The same three men appeared before the Lebanon Rotary Club April 18, 1940. Later in the year Marvin Butler and James Oppitz broadcasted over WTMV in East St. Louis.

The Pi Kappa Delta question for the year was, "Resolved: That the United States should embark on a policy of strict isolation toward all belligerent nations outside the Western Hemisphere".

Radio Club

(W9BEJ)

The Radio Club is one of our newer organizations. It was organized in the Fall of 1938. Our club tries to promote fellowship and individual efficiency as well as an interest in radio at McKendree.

We offer an opportunity to obtain enough radio knowledge so that an individual may become a licensed operator. In our weekly meetings we present talks on radio and general electricity.

We have added a fifty-watt phone transmitter and a new Sky-Buddy four-band receiver to our equipment so that we may contact amateur stations in neighboring cities.

McKendree Chorus

Again this year the men's and women's clubs were combined, except that each group elected its own officers. As usual, we gave programs in many Southern Illinois churches on Sundays from February through April. We also broadcasted from Harrisburg, KSD, and KMOX.

We are very proud of our new robes which we purchased this year.

On the evening of Baccalaureate Sunday we presented the oratorio "Elijah" with the help of some of the local singers.

McKendree Quartets

This year there was a change of only one member in the women's quartet while the men's group had two new faces and voices.

Besides singing regularly on the glee club trips, we also made trips with Mr. Brown to churches in Southern Illinois to present McKendree programs. The women's quartet appeared before clubs in Lebanon and East St. Louis, and the men made an interesting trip to Chester for a County Teachers' Convention. They also appeared in the First Methodist Church of Chester. High school appearances were a part of our year's activities.

The "M" Club is an organization of letter men whose purpose is the promotion of good sportsmanship and athletic fellowship.

We dispense the green caps to the freshmen in the fall and sponsor the election of the football queen. Gloria Baer won the closely-contested election this year and presided as football queen at the Homecoming game.

Football Squad

With eight returning lettermen, the 1939 season saw a decidedly improved McKendree grid squad over that of the previous year.

A heart-breaking start was made by losing to Shurtleff in the last few minutes of play. This discouraging defeat at the hands of McKendree's traditional rival may, in part, account for the dropping of the next two games. After these three losses, however, the Bearcats snapped out of their complex to hand the plucky Eureka gridders a decisive defeat.

By far the most satisfying game of the season was the Homecoming game against Chillicothe Business College. Spurred on by the spirit of the day and the victory of the week before, the Purple and White let loose a brilliant aerial attack which netted them two touchdowns in the first half. Although failing to score in the second period, McKendree held the Missouri eleven to two touchdowns. At the end, McKendree was on top—14 to 12.

Injuries suffered by a number of the men in the Homecoming game, and the withdrawal of George Handlon from school, greatly weakened the Bearcats for their meeting with Illinois College. The "Cats" emerged badly bruised from this game; but they closed the season successfully, the following week, with a 25 to 12 victory over Moberly College.

Although the number of games won was not favorable to McKendree, no game was lost by an overwhelming margin.

Captain John "Ace" Harmon, Milton Sager, and Kelly Simmons will leave us via the sheepskin route. The going of these three veterans will be keenly felt; but with the return of some eleven lettermen and the addition of several new men, the 1940 team can be expected to be one of the best that McKendree has produced in recent years.

Football Queen

Out of twelve candidates, Miss Gloria Baer was elected 1939 Football Queen in the voting contest held previous to Homecoming Day.

Gloria, who is a student in the Fine Arts Department, majoring in piano, and a sophomore, was chosen as the fourth succeeding Homecoming Queen.

At the annual Homecoming game, Dr. C. R. Yost presented Miss Baer with a bouquet on behalf of the student body, after which she was formally declared queen by Miss Bertie Bauer, retiring queen.

Football Days

About that time in autumn
When leaves begin to fall,
Some men upon the campus
Are searching for the ball.

After days of gruelling practice,
And weeks of strenuous drill,
The coach picks out the "huskies"
Whom he thinks will fill the bill.

About the time the choice is made,
And all is well in line,
The Profs will say, "Let's study hard,
It's mid-semester time."

Between the twilight practices
And educational toil,
The more ambitious players
Will be burning midnight oil.

Then through the days of injuries
And scholastic lack of sense,
The puzzled coach has to admit
They have him on the fence.

With all the trials there seems to be
A fair star in our heaven,
For we ended up the season's scores
With three games out of seven.

Coach Herbert Gould, in his second year as McKendree football coach, has developed a decided improvement in the football standing. His plays and football technique is comparable to that of the coaches of much larger schools. With the proper support and backing of McKendreans, Coach Gould should be able to produce a winning team next year.

CAPTAIN JOHN HARMON, Senior

Lebanon. Center; Three Year Letterman.

"Ace" will be remembered as the hard-working, quiet captain of the 1939 McKendree football squad. Though seldom heard, he made his presence on the field felt by his hard tackling and his continual drive while in the game. "Ace" was listed as a center with the team, but he seldom snapped a ball, his best work being done in the tackle position. He played his best game against the Burlington College team, gaining more tackles than any other player. Next year's Bearcats will sorely miss this strong, silent tackle.

DEAN KIRKPATRICK, Freshman

Sesser. End; First Year Letterman.

"Barney" rendered a great service to the 1939 McKendree grid squad by his consistent "booting" of the extra point. He was also a valuable man for receiving passes. His services should be of great value in forming next year's team.

WAYNE TIMMONS, Freshman

Granite City. Guard; First Year Letterman.

Wayne began the season as a substitute left guard, playing in practically every game in the early part of the season. With the loss of George Handlon as regular guard, Wayne stepped in and took over the regular position.

MARVIN CORZINE, Freshman

Centralia. Halfback; First Year Letterman.

Fresh from four years of high school competition, "Cuz" won his place on the Bearcat eleven by his broken field running and ability to evade the opponent. His dazzling display of speed and shiftiness contributed a great deal to the McKendree scoring. He was forced to miss several of the games because of a head injury suffered in the Homecoming game.

Granite City. End; Two Year Letterman.

"Roz," a halfback on last year's squad, was put on the line this year because of his speed and ability to catch passes. With two years to go he is expected to add considerably to the strength of the 1940 team. Besides being an outstanding player, "Roz" has done a lot to build up the morale of the team through his sense of humor.

East St. Louis. Quarterback; Two Year Letterman.

An outstanding blocker and backfield man was the distinction given to "Buddy" in his second year as a McKendree gridder. His kicking made him a valuable man to the McKendree team, and the nineteen-forty grid season will undoubtedly see him in his same back row position.

BARTLEY GREENWOOD, Junior

West Frankfort. End; Three Year Letterman.

To complete a good passing attack, it is necessary to have a good receiver as well as passer. Bart's ability to snag passes and get down the field fast under the punts made him one of the best ends of the 1939 team.

EARL BRAEUTIGAM, Freshman

Mascoutah. Fullback; First Year Letterman.

One of the biggest men on the team, Earl used his height and weight to advantage when blocking for the McKendree team. When a few extra yards were needed to gain a first down, Earl could be depended upon to carry the ball over.

RAYMOND FARY, Sophomore

Seabright, New Jersey.

Tackle; Two Year Letterman.

"Ray" came back and this year proved himself one of the hardest tacklers on the squad. His ability to center the ball on offense, and to back up the line of defense, made him an important link in the McKendree chain. Because of a leg and shoulder injury he was compelled to miss two of the season's games.

HERBERT SIMONS, Sophomore

Edwardsville. End; Two Year Letterman.

"Herb" earned his first letter last year at the end position. This year he held the same position. While he did not play any outstanding games he was fighting every minute he was in. With his two years of varsity experience "Herb" will be a great asset to the 1940 team.

HARRY GROTHJAHN, Sophomore

Granite City. Halfback; First Year Letterman.

Starting out his freshman year as a substitute backfield-man "Tige" returned this year to take over a regular position and win his letter. A hard-playing, dependable back, he would be an asset to any college team. "Tige's" ball-handling was above average.

DONALD HARTMAN, Freshman

O'Fallon. Fullback; First Year Letterman.

Starting out on the line, Don was shifted into the backfield where he spent the remainder of the season. His weight, combined with his hard blocking and tackling, made a lasting impression on the McKendree opponents. With three years remaining of his college grid career, Don will be a great asset to future McKendree teams.

Posey. Guard; First Year Letterman.

"Al," having spent his first year as a substitute Bearcat guard, returned to the guard position and, by virtue of his hard tackling and good blocking, earned his letter. His outstanding game was played against the Principia team. A small man with a strong heart, "Al" will undoubtedly fill the guard position again next year.

KELLY SIMMONS, Seni

Woodriver. Halfback; [illegible] Letterman.

Kelly, although one of the ligh[illegible]on the McKendree squad, was one of the most aggressive backfield men to don the Purple and White. "Kels" pulled the "Cats" out of the hole several times with his accurate passing and his dazzling running. Besides being a valuable runner and passer Kelly was also the "brains" of the team, calling most of the plays.

MILTON SAGER, Senior

Mt. Vernon. Tackle; Three Year Letterman.

In evaluating a player's worth a great deal of emphasis is placed upon his ability to work in several positions, if needed. "Milt" has done a great deal to prove his worth to the team by filling in at tackle, center, guard, or wherever he was needed most. By virtue of his hard tackling, good blocking, and smooth centering, he was looked upon as one of the most valuable players on the McKendree team.

Back Row—R. Reeard, C. Lowe, G. Tuttle, C. Albright, Coach Henderson, H. Ward, R. Allen, L. Grieve, J. Loy, D. Winter.
Front Row—J. Harmon, C. Burns, M. Corzine, Capt. J. Henderson, P. Griffin, B. Greenwood, G. Edwards, M. Petty.

Basketball Squad

What, at the beginning, bade fair to be a banner season for the Bearcat Cagers ended on a somewhat sour note for McKendree. Of the seventeen games played, McKendree lost twelve and won five. While the total game score appeared rather one-sided, the individual game scores showed up quite differently, a number of games being lost by a very narrow margin. The game with Washington University appeared to be a Bearcat victory at the half, but the Washington Bears came through in the last half to defeat the Bearcats by a two-point margin.

The seven lettermen were the ones who were "on deck" for every game and carried the heavy end of the load.

A great loss will be felt by the 1940-41 Bearcat Cagers this June since both John "Jumbo" Henderson and John "Ace" Harmon are to be graduated. A strong reserve team will greatly aid Coach Henderson in the formation of his 1940-41 team.

CAPTAIN JOHN "JUMBO" HENDERSON, Senior

Thebes. Guard; Three Year Letterman.

"Jumbo" was one of the three returning lettermen on the Bearcat team. A consistent player, he showed outstanding ability in the position of guard. Although not leading in the scoring division, his ball-handling and occasional long shots helped pull the "Cats" out of many a tight spot. His game performance, plus his dependability, made him one of the outstanding McKendree basketball captains.

PAUL "WHANG" GRIFFIN, Freshman

East St. Louis. Forward; One Year Letterman.

From the first the "blushing violet" of the squad, "Whang" showed himself to be a hard scrapper and an asset to the Bearcat scoring machine. "Whang's" outstanding game was played against Springfield College on the McKendree floor. Although a newcomer to the team, McKendree's rivals have recognized in him a power with which to reckon.

CICERO BURNS, Sophomore

Lebanon. Forward; One Year Letterman.

Missing only two McKendree games this season, Cicero proved himself to be very valuable to Coach Henderson's Cagers. Cicero's clever ball-handling and passing enabled the Bearcats to score a great number of their points. With two years remaining, he will undoubtedly be one of the key men on future McKendree teams.

JOHN "ACE" HARMON, Senior

Lebanon. Center; Four Year Letterman.

"Ace," the tall, handsome individual on the team always conspicuous by his silence, has served McKendree for four years in every varsity sport. Although he was outstanding in every sport, "Ace" excelled in his ability to "hit the hoop." A steady defensive player and an aggressive offensive player, he has earned the distinction of being one of the best McKendree cagers. Out of 557 points scored for the McKendree team "Ace" scored 161. He will long be remembered for his work on McKendree cage teams.

MASON PETTY, Freshman

Homer. Guard; One Year Letterman.

Mason played his initial college game against the Washington University Bears. With this introduction into college basketball he continued to play a hard game the rest of the season. A shoulder injury caused him to retire from the squad for a short time but he finished the season with the team. With three years ahead of him, we will undoubtedly see Mason on future McKendree teams.

MARVIN "CUZ" CORZINE, Freshman

Centralia. Forward; One Year Letterman.

"Cuz," fresh from Coach Bozart's Centralia cage team, was outstanding in every game. His "quick break" and ability to handle the ball with either hand caused the opposition a great deal of concern. "Cuz," in his scoring, was second to "Ace" Harmon, scoring a total of 119 points out of the 557. He did a great deal to speed up and give zest to the McKendree games with his fast and rough type of play.

BART GREENWOOD, Junior

West Frankfort. Guard; Two Year Letterman.

Bart was one of the strong spots in the Bearcats' defensive machine. His ability to pass and work with the rest of the team was responsible for a large percentage of McKendree baskets. Although never the high point gainer, Bart consistently gained points for the Bearcats. He has one more year with the McKendree squad.

Third Row—A. Baum, R. Hortin, P. Griffin, A. Agles, Coach Henderson, C. Albright, J. Harmon, W. Stephenson, A. Eddings.

Second Row—C. Curtis, M. Corzine, H. Grothjahn, C. Long, B. Greenwood, R. Crouse, C. Burns, J. Agles.

First Row—M. Petty, R. Allen, J. Loy, G. Tuttle, J. Lyerla, C. Lowe, G. Edwards.

Track Squad

Coach A. K. Henderson built his 1940 track squad about the four lettermen returning from last year's squad. The four men are: Charles Long, shot putter and javelin thrower; Cecile Albright, shot putter; Harry Grothjahn, pole vaulter; and Bob Allen, broad-jumper.

Giving additional strength to this unit were: "Ace" Harmon, Senior; "Bud" Edwards, James Lyerla, Albert Johnpeter, Carol Lowe, Edgar Allen Agles, Sophomores; and "Cuz" Corzine, "Jim" Agles, George Tuttle, Ross Hortin, Cyril Curtis, Earl Braeutigam, Wayne Stevenson, Paul Griffin, Freshmen.

1940 TRACK SCHEDULE

April 27—Triangular Meet: Principia, Concordia, and McKendree.

May 4—Dual Meet: Millikin and McKendree.

May 11—Dual Meet: Washington University Freshmen and McKendree.

May 18—Triangular Meet: Principia, Blackburn, and McKendree.

Minor Sports

INTRAMURALS

One of the outstanding points of interest in our athletic program for this year has been the intramural competition in basketball and softball.

The Lu-Helens came out victorious in the basketball tournament with competition being furnished by the Termites, the Bar-flies and the Scrubs.

Five softball teams answered the initial call for intramural competition. They are the Cyclops, Scrubs, Diamonds, Bar-flies and Woodpeckers.

Two teams have aspired to semi-professional aid, inviting several of the professors to supplement their playing forces.

The softball intramural program involved sixty men, thereby offering them entertainment three nights a week.

EXTRA-MURAL SOFTBALL

In addition to our intramural program, Coach Henderson is promoting an extra-mural softball program which will place the best players of our intramural teams in competition with the softball squads of other schools.

Last year the inter-school competition was a varsity sport. The returning members of last year's varsity team have helped greatly in the formation of a strong McKendree team for this year.

RECREATION PROGRAM

A great deal of progress, during the 1939-40 semester, has been made in the McKendree recreational program, largely through the efforts of Athletic Director A. K. Henderson.

Additional gymnastic classes have been added and a greater opportunity has been given to each individual to participate in some form of activity. Additions to the program include volley ball, tumbling, tennis, golf, basketball, and badminton.

The creation of a recreation room providing facilities for shuffleboard, ping pong, checkers, and chess, has afforded an opportunity for student recreation during leisure moments.

The McKendree Revue!

(Music up)
(Fade out with line, "It's a song of praise we raise to thee")

From two hundred homes, the history of the world is moving forward—in East St. Louis, Belleville, Granite City; in Sumner, Mascoutah, and Posey tonight there is a lingering sadness. For school has begun again and with luggage in tow, McKendreans began the grand trek Lebanonward.

Beginning Monday, September 11, with freshman registration and the appearance of "Worry Wart" Ashby on the campus, the spirit of 1939-40 manifested itself among green and seasoned students alike.

Two picnics were held, one of which took place on Hypes Field. . . After facing a strenuous day of separating "snaps" from 7:40's, even the upperclassmen were ready for this picnic, which consisted of enough doughnuts and apples for even a husky freshman named Griffin.

Leap year begins early at McKendree, if the "Y Mixer" is any indication. Recreation leaders Hertenstein and Herman urged the girls to make the advances as well as the fellows when a game which was a series of "dates" was presented to the group. And did they heed the advice? Well, judging from some of the surprising couples, we believe they did. And time alone can tell what chips have fallen where they otherwise might not.

In the cool of the evening of Tuesday, September 19, there was racing and chasing a-plenty on the second and third floors of both dorms, not to speak of that among students living off-campus. If everyone didn't go to the President's Reception, it certainly wasn't from the lack of an invitation. In the candle-lighted rooms of the Yost home, while Madeleine Yost and Dorothy Hertenstein presided over the punch bowl and Marion Kleinschmidt and the lately-returned Pearl Dick rivaled the Muses, guests wandered from room to room, from group to group, nibbling, sipping, chatting, sometimes on the arms of chairs, hemmed in a corner, or barred by fellow guests. Again, one of the major events of the season has come and gone.

I was driving along the road between Lebanon and Edwardsville last Saturday morning when, upon making a sudden turn, I saw, pulled to one side of the highway, the McKendree College bus. Upon investigation I found that the Timken bearings in the rear axle had broken down. While the boys gave the bus a check-up, I engaged in conversation with the driver, Mr. Clifford Brown. The group, he said, was on its way to Youth Day at the annual Methodist Conference, where the night before, McKendree students had given a program. "Too bad, but we're making that conference today," he shouted, as he succeeded in starting the motor and driving away. And, perhaps, if I don't shut off my motor and go away, my bearings, too, will break down.

(Music Up—"Loyalty")
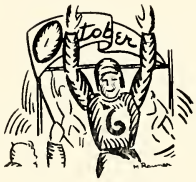
(Fade Out)



This is station MCK bringing you the McKendree Revue, a series of events in the history of McKendree College.

Good morning, radio fans, listeners-in, and patrons of McKendree.

Everything here has plunged madly, daringly, and headlong into school life. The football season opened with a sss—boom! at Shurtleff. McKendree fans loaded the bus and went up to show Shurtleff what they could do. And, despite their defeat, McKendreans always maintain their pride, their integrity,—and Cicero!

Last year, at McKendree, a Faculty-Student council was organized for a mutual understanding of problems on the campus. That body had hardly closed its secretary's book when those freshmen let chaos loose. The evening began with a drizzle of rain and ended with sophs and frosh, alike, looking like Huckleberry Finns. Yes, I do mean the Freshman Fight. Even with Brown and Henderson aiding and abetting the crime, the young ones got it! Failing to receive the right message, the group got separated—and met its downfall. Plastered with mud, the fellows were "loaded up" for their annual "ride" to Summerfield, Shiloh, and points South; and even the girls met a similar fate! So, tired, bedraggled, but undaunted, the frosh found themselves with the worst end of the deal—and no food! Could there have been a happier ending?

"Is this Leopold Stokowski or Ben Bernie?" . . . "Who is that fellow that looks like Jimmy Durante?" . . . "I would swear that's Robert Taylor, but it might be Bob Montgomery." No, it's not a Hollywood masquerade, but a party at the Methodist Church, and the game was to identify pictures. Ralph Edwards was the winner, missing only the Dionne quints' first name. Such a party you never saw! The guests were enchanted with the "cobwebs", at the ends of which hung innumerable toys. And they proceeded to shed their dignity and play jacks on the stone basement floor. But such, my friends, is human nature; and for a reinstating of McKendree's dignity in your own minds, go look at those long-lamented Philo records that returned last week to solve a mystery of half a century.

Good morning, radio listeners. This is station MCK, Lebanon, Illinois, bringing you another series of thrilling adventures on McKendree College Campus—The McKendree Revue.

If you had been on McKendree's campus one Friday morning a few weeks ago, you would have thought, with horror, that the world was in its last stages of degradation. Ranging from Robin Hood to Adolf Hitler, the crowd gathered around the Chapel steps might easily have been collecting for a raid on the local bank. But, "what's college life coming to if we can't have a Hobo Day in peace?" asked McKendree's student body. Peace? Somebody had brought an alarm clock—and that version of "Chopsticks"!

Don't think for a moment that McKendree let off all her steam on Friday. Saturday brought a red-letter day to the campus, also. Homecoming day, dawning cold and cloudy, brought its reunions, its memories, Gloria Baer for football queen, victory over Chillicothe, and a triumphant Mrs. Pidgeon in a combat called "Fresh Fields".

Tempus has quit fugiting; it sneaks up. Mid-semester exams have come, leaving a trail of nervous, sleepy-eyed students in their wake. Results later in the month revealed that some students became unduly alarmed and that others—well, some people didn't believe Vesuvius would erupt, either.

Dr. Mary H. Wright has had the position of chaperon thrust on her twice this month—first, when the Children's Literature class toured the Belleville Public Library; and again, when the Review staff celebrated the birthday of the Hill's oldest publication by going to East St. Louis for the gala occasion. Eighteen years old this month, the Review has never ceased to be the delight of students during the time of "Maryhads" down through the current "Owl".

Again McK's campus takes on dignity! Open House at Clark Hall last Thursday evening was dignified from the greeting of the receiving line to the last glimpse of a certain sedate senior chatting over her punch glass. And if one or two young men did arrive in sweaters and slacks, sans ties, and if two others did try to crash the paper guards at the west end of third floor, that was no reflection on Clark Hall.

After much debate concerning the choice of a day upon which Thanksgiving might be celebrated, McKendree's population favored the newly-established date; so, on November 21 began the annual Thanksgiving vacation. And now, with your permission and hearty approval, I avail myself of the same opportunity.

December, 1939, has seen few activities to record. The "Y's" and the literary societies have met and the basketball team has won two games; the Owl has stayed awake, and the Football Banquet was a success. But the honors go to the Y.M. and Y.W. in a joint Christmas party.

Formal was the word, they said. And as formal as McKendree can be, it was, with even two sets of hosts and hostesses. Entertainment varied from folk games, with skirts swinging, to Van Dyke's "The First Christmas Tree" as Mrs. Oppitz faced a dim roomful of intent faces.

Thus, with the glow of candle light on Yuletide decorations and pretty formals, with a blast of ten-cent horns, and a crash of toys on wheels, McKendree's year 1939 virtually ended.

With the arrival of 1940 on McKendree's campus, came also a rush of returning students. "Being snowed under at home isn't much fun any more. It's more exciting to be where you can at least tell someone down the hall all about what somebody gave you for Christmas—" . . . Thus remark residents of Clark Hall. . . . The men, however, are less committal, preferring to cover their intimacies with an appearance of sophistry. Nevertheless, we do hear that the Edwards brothers had guests over the holidays; that Mr. Sager escaped to Florida; that numerous others defied the sub-zero weather to visit friends and make the most of the holidays.

I was walking down the dark hall on second in the men's dorm a few nights ago when I saw three or four slumped figures seated around a table. Quiet pervaded the hall. I watched these fellows closely, trying to detect their intentions. In terror, I turned to see someone slinking down the hall to his room. I motioned for him to come and asked him why the awful silence and if, perhaps, it would be wise to call Mr. Rauschkolb. Whereupon, I was informed that semester exams were looming before the student body, and that these culprits were preparing for the awful days ahead.

If exams slowed down somewhat the tempo of McKendree's activity, the members of the College a capella choir were not daunted. Doing the unusual with new purple and white robes and programs, the Glee Club began its annual series of programs at Trenton, Friday, January 26. The long grind of trips is upon us until April.

Isn't it amusing to watch second-semester "frosh" register? It usually takes about fifteen minutes—until they come face-to-face with the waiting list in the office and see number 121 staring at them brazenly. When will they learn that registration day is the time to figure out their schedules—not a week beforhand? It's cold as—, but Nita is here, so why worry?

Good morning, radio listeners. February has been an eventful, exciting month here at McKendree. It all began with the converting of the old Science Hall lecture room into a recreation room. Although conditions now existing are said to be temporary, there seems to be a new slant given to education on our campus: that of ping pong and chess. And if there be those students among us who have that lean and hungry look—well, far be it from us to criticize! Have a look at their ping pong records!

If you had "happened in" at Clark Hall any day during the week February 8-14, you might have noticed anybody sneaking into anybody else's room. And if you could have gone inside one of those rooms, you would have found, probably, not gripe sessions, not a pop-corn party on the sly, but someone making someone else's bed, mopping the floor, or hiding a package with a heart on it. Yes, the co-eds were having a "heart-sister" week with plenty of fun, thrills, and narrow escapes.

The Faculty Dames' Reception came at a happy time for the Clio pledges, since it made a nice occasion to which they might escort their "pledge dates".

Besides the East St. Louis Federal Band and Clarissa Start, from the Post-Dispatch, making red-letter Chapels, and the coming of Valentine Day and Sigma Tau Delta securing four pledges, the most racing, chasing, primitive event was "Sadie Hawkins Week". The women literally "got their men". And for all the heart-throbbing and secret-revealing on the part of the leap-year-crazed women, wasn't it the fellows who were pleased enough to petition a prolongation of the agonies?

Yes, I take my cue from those words and wish you "good morning".

Who was it that said, "The stormy March has come at last"? At any rate, March has gone, but it wasn't a "stormy" March. Some day, I intend, by suggesting a re-christening of those two months, March and April, to April and March, to contribute something toward calendar reform. But, alas, the weather is not my subject—lest I grow more eloquent than becomes a news-vendor.

If March has been hypocritical about the weather, it has brought some new and interesting events to McKendree. The year's first evening recital was given during a regime of flu; but the up and able students contributed to its success—And then, for variety, there were mid-semester exams—McKendree's a capella Choir asserted itself with a broadcast over KSD to remind us that long, tiring trips have need of a recompense somewhere. . . And debate has flourished again where it originally blossomed and died; in Philo and Pi Kappa Delta. . . But by far the most illustrious occasion to which the old campus has arisen since Homecoming was her Founders' Day. Scrubbed and polished, both buildings and student body woke on March 14 to greet the gloomiest day in a week—but soon forgot its grayness in welcoming the crowd which gathered to learn about McKendree's age, her problems, and her talents . . . Then as suddenly as it had come, the rush was over and Glee Club practice and tomorrow's tests became realities once more.

This is station MCK. We have just brought you a quarter of an hour's broadcast, The McKendree Revue, a monthly report of events on McKendree College's campus.

Once again station MCK brings you the McKendree Revue, a series of events in the history of McKendree College.

April has brought to the campus the April Fool edition of the Review carrying an announcement of Coach Henderson's selection for the part of Rhett Butler in "Gone With the Wind", an account of the Utterback-Harmon trial, and plans for the Lake Beautiful summer resort.

This month, however, the most-talked-of event on the campus was the spring play. "Wuthering Heights", with Marion Kleinschmidt and "Scud" Long as the diabolical Cathy and Heathcliff. The members of the cast were unusually well-suited to their parts; the sound effects were good; and the scenes, which shifted from the crude room at Wuthering to an elegant drawing room at The Grange, were carefully done.

After ten days of silent dorms and quiet town the all-too-brief spring vacation is past. The Faculty Dames and guests make merry at a house-warming affair with Dr. and Mrs. Spencer on April 19. What's a cardboard walk to stout-hearted faculty folk?

Before and after—that's the phrase for two outstanding recitals given shortly before and after spring vacation in McK's chapel. Mrs. Becker, St. Louis, gave us a taste of music from the outside and Lucille Floetman, one of our own sopranos, reminded us of what can still be done on our own campus.

"Hurry! Hurry!" No one knows the significance of those words as do McKendrean staff members. Editor I. Shaffer and her force have been doing some scatter-brained thinking and spasmodic work since Spring vacation. But now that the McKendrean has gone to press, they could rest—if it weren't for term papers.

Alpha Psi Omega has been one of those organizations suffering from a lack of membership. But all it needed was the spring tonic of seeing Paul Muni in "Key Largo" and a dinner afterward to give it a new zest for life.

And that, my friends, is precisely what I need now—lazy days and warm nights are upon us.

This is station MCK signing off and reminding you to listen in again to the McKendree Revue on Monday, May 27.

(Fade Out)

Good morning, radio fans. This is station MCK bringing you the last program in the McKendree Revue series.

I'm not very good at coaxing, but I wheedled a certain McKendree co-ed out of her most valued possession: a dairy. From which we read these words:

"May, the month of college romance! It is upon us. Y.W. cabinet began it right with a May day breakfast and hike. Ruined my May basket by dropping and letting a car run over it. Oh! My feet! May Fete today. Ah, memories of my freshman days—gone so soon. Time is so fleeting. The past two weeks are as a dream: exams, (how I always work those five days!), the Dorris oratorical contest, Clio-Philo exhibition, with the girls in their summery dresses; caps and gowns flying on Baccalaureate Sunday; music from "Elijah" ringing out across the Hill; the last senior recital, and again the infinite array of caps and gowns in the long procession up the President's walk. . . . But a few days, even hours, ago we prated and hid from ourselves what was gripping us. This empty feeling that keeps haunting me . . And summer coming; and another September! Must such beginnings always come with these inevitable ends stored away to deceive the heart?"

Truly, we regret another year is ended and we must be gone—but only to return again. And until next September McKendree College wishes you the best of success and a pleasant vacation.

(Music Up—"Loyalty", with McKendree Choir)

This is the last of a series of broadcasts of the McKendree Revue. This program will be heard again, beginning next September, over this same station, MCK.

Dramatically Speaking

Periodically, it seems, someone among McKendree's student body decides to try out for a play and succeeds remarkably well, or some old stars make a comeback. Both cases have occurred on our campus this year.

Especially was this true of the Homecoming play, "Fresh Fields", by Ivor Novello. Delicate Lady Lillian and frank Mrs. Pidgeon made a sharp contrast of character throughout the play. Vivacious, rollicking, surprising, "Fresh Fields" deserved the acclaim it was given by our own and other newspapers.

THE CAST

Lady Lillian	Helen Waggoner
Lady Mary	Lucille Floetman
Mrs. Pidgeon	Pearl Dick
Tom Pidgeon	Ralph Koch
Una Pidgeon	Dorothy Hertenstein
Ludlow	Robert Herman
Lady Strome	Dorothy Schumacher
Swaine	Ruth Henderson
Tim, Lady Mary's son	James Oppitz

Four members of the Play Production Class—Dorothy Miller, Barbara Woolard, Janet Barkley, and Harry Ward, directed one-act plays during April and May.

"Wuthering Heights", adapted by Randolph Carter from the book by Emily Bronte, was outstanding in all its phases—from the pewter dishes and crude broom on the hearth to the eerie sound-effects backstage.

The scenery, rough and melancholy in the first and third acts, contrasting strongly with the refined, cheerful effects of the second act, lent much to the atmosphere of the play. Lacking in superficial humor, "Wuthering Heights" is possibly the heaviest drama McKendree players have ever produced. The actors showed an unusual keenness for studying and adapting themselves to the characters of a truly dramatic production.

May Queen

BERTIE BAUER
Bunker Hill

Bertie, our May Queen, is an active member of Clio, Sigma Zeta, and the Women's Athletic Association. We need not mention her popularity with the Boy and Girl on the campus since she has been Football Queen as well as having been elected by the girls of Clark Hall to be their first representative to the Faculty-Student Council.

We have recognized in Bertie the unassuming beauty of character which so eloquently compliments the beauty of her features and which adds so greatly to the charm of her personality.

Pearl Dick of Mascoutah served as Maid of Honor. Dorothy Hertenstein, Madeleine Yost, Helen Waggoner, and Lucille Floetman were the Queen's other attendants.
